

Resumes for Internships, Scholarships, and Beyond Wksp, Th, Mar 12, 2020, 10-11 am

Please visit us for a scholarship workshop given on Thursday, March 12, from 10 am-11 am at the TSU Writing Center, room 310, Student Success Center (aka LRC).

Come hear how KeAnna, a TSU student, received over $35,000 in total for 2018-2019 and the 2019-2020 school year.

Then, writing instructor/tutor and scholarship coach, Mike Turner, will tell you how the Writing Center can assist you in finding internships and scholarships.

Next, writing instructor/tutor, Lori Danley, will go over what you should include in a resume when applying for internships and scholarships, and how your resume is a “living” document, needing to change depending upon the opportunity or your aspirations.

Internships and Other Ways to Learn (Experiential Learning)

<http://www.tnstate.edu/careers/experiential/>

Your first step as a TSU student is to avail yourself of opportunities only available to you, and you find those connections through the TSU Career Development Center and the link above.

Here you can find opportunities through TigerTrack, InternCONNECT, and the Internship Listing Guide.

Learn about internships, cooperative education (co-ops), job shadowing, study abroad, service learning, and undergraduate research.

Here are links to describe the process that TSU students can use to search for internships.

Other Internship information found at Tnstate.edu

<http://www.tnstate.edu/>

Go to the Search TSU box in the upper right-hand corner and type in internship and hit ENTER.

You will find different TSU webpages that contain internship information. If you find the links out of date, then just google the internship possibility to see if the program is being offered in 2020.
